

Building sustainable eHealth system for Improved health outcomes:

Moving from Donor funding to local solution

Onesmus Kamau - Head of eHealth Unit

I(enya ()

Overview/Background

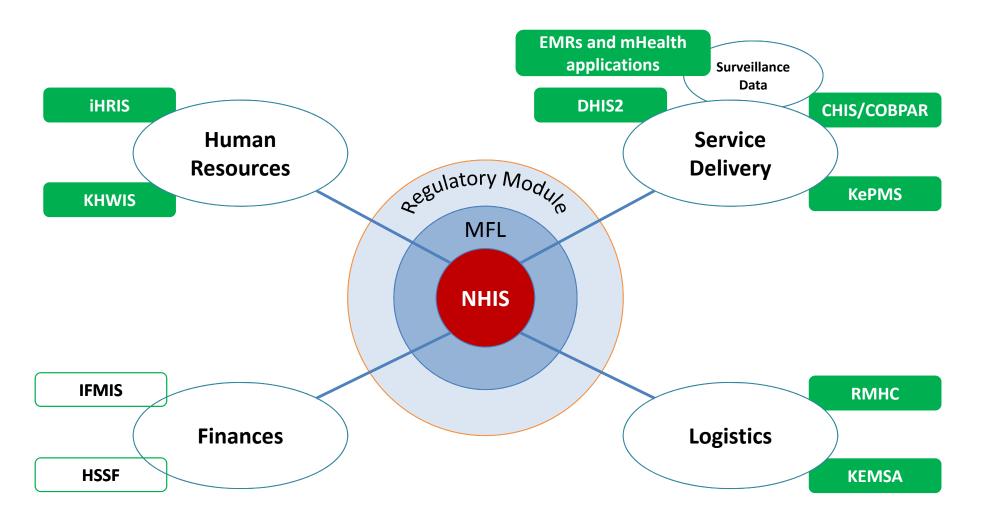

HIS strengthening- The journey for Kenya

Disparate reporting systems

Establishment of the HIS unit

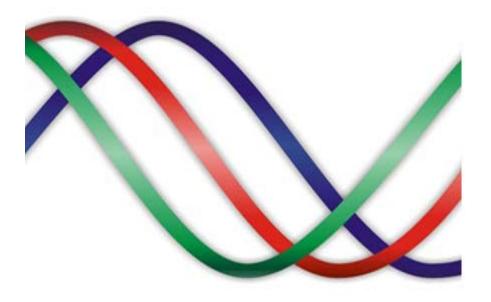

Establishment of the eHealth unit

The NHIS

Underpinning: Policies, standards and guidelines and Research

Tripartite partnership

Ministry of Health(National &county level)

Private Sector/Development partners

Research & training institutions

Milestones achieved through the partnership

University of Nairobi

- NHIS training and testing server
- Annual HIS boot camps
- NHIS Help desk
- Testing HIS applications at small scale
- Health informatics track at MSC and PHD established

Ministry of health

- Policies and guidelines (HIS policy, ehealth strategy, mHealth applications standards and guidelines)
- Standards and regulation
- Establishment of Leadership and cordination structures (eHealth TWG-mHealth subcommittee)

Milestones achieved through the partnership

Private sector / Development partners
Corporate social responsibility

Support for development and implementation of the NHIS Marketing applications and financing through innovative cost models

Select highlights of partnership

- ✓ MSc Applied Computing Health Informatics Track 25 students in new programme
- ✓ PHD in Health Informatics Track 4 students; 1 defended (thesis on adoption DHIS2)
- ✓ UON Annual Boot camps on Software development 40 students graduated (2013-2014), 23 students(2015)-bootcamp ongoing

Total Tickets		2580
Open Tickets		352
Closed Tickets		2228
•	Closed BY MOH- ICT	2061
•	Closed BY MOH- HIS	60
•	Closed By UON	20
•	Closed By USAID AfyaInfo project	20

NHIS Service desk

- ✓ Provides NHIS applications support to users from across the country both online and on phone
- ✓ Manned by MOH and UON staff
- ✓ 2580 Requests logged in the last 6months

Total No of Tickets Logged	2580
Open Tickets	352
Closed Tickets	2228
Closed BY MOH-ICT Dept	2061
Closed BY MOH-DivHIME	60
Closed By UON	20
 Closed By USAID AfyaInfo project 	20

UON Annual bootcamp 2014

Critical outcomes of the partnership model

- Improved access to and use of information for better planning, resource allocation and policy development
- Standardization of applications
- Avoidance of duplication
- Enhanced service delivery
- Readily available local technical support

Improved health outcomes

On going developments

- Review of the eHealth strategy
- Development of mHealth standards
- Development of eHealth policy
- Development of system interoperability and data governance framework
- Enhancement of the DHIS2 to share data with mobile applications
- Linking the DHIS2 with RNMCH scorecard
- Development of health sector enterprise architecture and DSL(Data service layer)
- Development of MFLV2
- Infrustructure deployment in CHMT offices and select health facilities to improve reporting

Asante – Thank you

